ALDERMEN VOTE FOR BUREAU SITE

Adams and Donahoe Change, Ordinance Winning by Safe Margin.

LOWER BRANCH TO CONCUR THIS WEEK

Council in recent years have occasioned the widespread interest and comment as has the question of securing the weather station, and from all parts of the city there have been the loudest complaints at the haggling and inaction of the Council, culminating in an almost unanimous vote of disapproval at the action of the Board of Aldermen last Tuesday in refusing to donate a site for the bureau offered by the Federal government.

Win by One Vote.

Yielding to the general wish of their constituents, although still experience of the general proposition of the general proposition of erecting buildings in parks, Alderman William H. Adams, of Jefferson Ward, and Alderman P. H. Donahoe, of Madison Ward, change from the negative to the affirmative side, giving the proposition one vote to spare on the roll-call. The ordinance required a three-fourths recorded votes to secure a passage.

There was a large lobby present last night when the special meeting of the Board was called to order, the Wegther Bureau ordinance being called from the table after the usual preliminaries. Mr. Gunst moved its adoption, saying that it was thoroughly understood and needed no further discussion on the floor.

Mr. Whittet, leader of the opposition of the limit will pass. And that is not all. Before the dummer is over there will be agreed that any further discussion was practically a waste of time. "The votes are here to pass it," said Mr. Whittet. "I wish to warn the Board, however, that it is setting a dangerous precedent in invading: its parks with public buildings. This is not the last of it. It will be only a short time before another proposition, asking a location in Monroe Park, will be presented, and if enough public sentiment is aroused over that proposition, sking a location in Monroe Park, will be presented, and if enough public sentiment is a step that every Alderman in this Board will live to deplore."

Mr. Satterfield, of Marshall Variance of life, he said, and after the same line of argument as Mr. Whittet.

Adams and Donahoe Change.

Mr. Adams explained his change of vote, saying that at the former meeting he had opposed the measure, and satterfield to exercise sire, and the p sites for this purpose, and considered it bad policy but that he had determined to cast his vote in accord with what seemed a universal public sentiment. "In the nine years I have been in the Council," said Mr. Adams, "I have never seen such a unanimous expression of public opinion, and I have never been annoached by so many

Aldermen last night. It is not believed that there will be serious objection to the measure in the lower branch.

JEROME'S FRIEND

Chief of His Detectives Dismissed for Permitting Brisouer to Escape.

NEW YORK, March 15.—Police Lieutenant Peter Beery, personal friend of District Attorney Jerome and head of his staff of detectives, was to-day dismissed from the force by Commissioner Bingham, as a result, it is said, of this having permitted the escape from custody of Francis G. Bailey, of "Goldsboro" fame, while Bailey was under restraint in a vessel in the harbor of Puerto Cortez, Honduras.

At his trial Beery put in the defense that upon the recommendation of the United States consul at Honduras he engaged a guard for Bailey and the latter's brother, and that it was while this guard was taking a map that the prisoner escaped. The vessel was within a mile of Puerto Cortez, and Bailey was taken to land the train under heavy guard of police. The police used their clubstopush block the crowd, which made a demonstration against the men. One man was a prested for an alleged assault upon a hat factory employe.

Mr. Richardson said he had been threatened and intimidated in this matter as never before. "I want to add," he continued, "that no member of the Board of Aldermen has asked me to change my vote. You all know in your hearts that we are right."

On the roll-call Mr. Donahoe explained that while still believing that his former vote had been right, the battle had been fought and his side had plained that while still believing that his former vote had been right, the bat the had been fought and his side had lost, and though votting against his judgment, he was willing to fall in with the will of the majority. On the roll-call Messrs. Richardson, Satterfield and Whittot were the only negatives. Mr. Nelsen, of Marshall Ward, the only absentee, came into the hall just after the body adjourned. He explained to friends that he had been detained by a business engagement, but was still unalterably opposed, and if present would have voted in the negative.

FURTHER TIME

Austria Will Allow Servia to Reconsider Her Position.

LONDON, March 15.—Apart from the fact that the weather conditions in Europe preclude any immediate military operations, it cannot be said that the relations between Austria-Hungary and Servia have yet reached a point where an outbreak of hostilities is probable. Throughout the negotiations that have been going on in connection with the delicate situation in the Balkang the Austrian idea has been to force Servis, first, to acknowledge that the question of the annexation of Bosynia and Herzegovina had passed beyond the stage where it could be made subject to a rearrangement, and, second, to take steps for the mobilization of the troops.

The unsatisfactory side of Servia's reply to Count Forgachs's note referring the Austro-Hungarian government to Servia's previous communication to the powers is the fact that it purposely evades these issues, thus tacitly implying that the matter has been left in the hands of the signatories of the Berlin treaty. On the other hand, it is considered a favorable indication that Servia has not closed the door to direct negotiations with Austria on economic questions.

The latest advices from Vienna tonight are to the effect that Austria has decided to give Servia further time to reconsider her position. It may therefore, be considered that to-day's developments have not greatly changed the situation for better or for worse.

World Publishers and Editors Answer Panama Scandal Indictment. World Publishers and Editors Answer Panama Scandal Indictment.

NEW YORK, March 15.—The Press Publishing Company, publishers of the New York World, through its counsel, Delancey Nicoli, pleaded not guilty before Judge Polt in the Federal court to-day to a charge of criminal libel in West Point and the New York post-office in the Panama Canal case.

Counsel for Caleb Van Hamm, an editor of the World, also entered a plea of not guilty to a similar charge in behalf of Mr. Van Hamm. Counsel was granted one week to prepare a special pleading as to the jurisdiction of the court.

Mr. Van Hamm appeared, with his counsel, before United States Commissioner Shields late to-day, and furnished $5,000 bail for his appearance in the Federal court on April 12.

The Indictments were found recently after a lengthy investigation of charges of libel on their part in connection with articles on the Panama Canal purchase. It was alleged that, among others, President Taft, Charles P. Taft, the President's brother; Ex-President Roosevelt and Douglas Robinson had been libeled in articles published during last October and circulated on government reservations, at West Point and in the Federal building here.
